

EXCISE BOARD CUTS SALOON LIST TO 259

Ten Retail and Four Wholesale Liquor Dealers Lose Their Licenses.

ONE CLUB TURNED DOWN

Establishments Denied License Will Be Given Month to Dispose of Stock by Wholesale.

The number of liquor-dispensing establishments in the District will be decreased by fourteen tomorrow.

Ten retail and four wholesale establishments will be wiped out.

Two hundred and fifty-nine applications for retail and eighty-four for wholesale licenses were granted by the Excise Board today.

From a list of 281 applications for bar room licenses, the Excise Board today rejected twenty-one, of which eleven were for places now in operation.

One application was withdrawn. The number of wholesale applications was ninety-five. Ten were refused by the board and one was withdrawn.

The police were directed to notify proprietors of bar rooms whose licenses were rejected to close their doors at midnight.

By order of the board, they will be given thirty days in which to dispose of their stock by wholesale.

Retail Licenses Refused.
Applications of previously licensed places rejected were:

Retail—August H. Pluge, 1317 Seventh street northwest.

Alexander A. Davis, 1001 E street northwest.

John F. Schriener, 730 Fourteenth street northwest.

Patrick J. Daly, 625 Four-and-a-half street southwest.

John J. Brozman, 506 Four-and-a-half street southwest.

Herman C. Ewald, 604 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.

Martin J. Burke, 927 Four-and-a-half street southwest.

Bernard Endres, 1015 I street northwest.

Jolly Fat Men's Club, 933 D street
northwest.

Jeremiah E. O'Connor, 1912 Fourteenth street northwest.

David W. Sullivan, 1290 E street
northwest.

Wholesale Licenses Refused.
Wholesale—German Brewing Company, Inc., First and I streets southeast.

Benjamin Kotz, 1005 Sixth street northeast.

Harvey S. Byrd, trading as Byrd & Barry Trading Company, 521 G street northwest.

Peter K. Chaconas, 220 Ninth street
northwest.

French-Italian Importing Company, Inc., 184 Fourteenth street northwest.

Referring to the action of the board, Mr. Shoemaker, attorney for the league, said today:

"While the rejection of some applications is particularly gratifying because of the location of the places, the net result of the action of the board is, on the whole, disappointing."

"It was hoped and expected by the Anti-Saloon League that the board would take into consideration the residential character of districts in which licenses have been renewed."

The league also expects that the board to modify its method of measurement of the distance from churches and schools and liquor establishments.

"Apparently the same methods here-before followed was pursued this year.
The league also regrets that the board has not taken into consideration the neighborhoods of a strictly residential character and regardless of business front."

Finds Wife in Tub Dead Babe in Arms

Husband Breaks in Door; Mother, Who May Be Insane, Held for Homicide.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—James Gilchrist, a Wall Street clerk, awoke yesterday morning to find his wife, Jeanie, dead, and his three-month-old daughter missing.

Knowing that his wife, a victim of a nervous trouble, had been acting queerly since Saturday, he broke into the bathroom when he found the door locked. In the tub, which was almost filled with water, Mrs. Gilchrist, the infant clasped to her breast, was found. The baby was submerged and was dead. The mother was apparently asleep, her nose and mouth above the water.

Mrs. Gilchrist, when lifted from the tub, dozed off while an ambulance and the police were summoned. Her mind was a blank and she talked incoherently.

She was removed to Kings County Hospital for observation as to her sanity. A charge of homicide was lodged against her.

Tell of Capture Of Santa Rosalia

Americans Reaching Border Confirms Taking of Town
By Bandits.

MT. PASO, Tex., Oct. 31.—Several Americans reaching the border during the night brought confirmation of the capture of the town of Santa Rosalia by Villista bandits, and said Villa is now moving on Parral and Jimenez.

The entire body of bandits, numbering nearly four thousand, are mounted on horses, mules, and burros, although a large number impressed in service recently by Villa are still unarmed.

Progressive Leader Who Backs President

JOHN M. PARKER.

MOOSERS' STEERING BODY FOR WILSON

Eleven of Nineteen Members of Progressive Committee Approve Candidacy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—"Without a candidate of our own for President, we are unalterably in favor of the retention in office of President Wilson, under whose guidance and leadership more progressive principles have been enacted into law than we believe might have been accomplished had the Progressive party been in power."

The foregoing endorsement of President Wilson was contained today in a statement, signed by eleven of the nineteen members of the Bull Moose resolution committee that drafted the Progressive platform in Chicago.

Five of the remaining members were said by Democratic managers to be in accord with sentiments of the full statement, but they refrained from naming a Presidential choice.

The statement said:

Reaffirm Allegiance.
"We, the undersigned members of the resolution committee that framed the platform of the Progressive party on August 7, 1912, do hereby reaffirm our unwavering allegiance to the progressive principles embodied in this platform and do herewith call the attention of the American people to the unparalleled achievement of progressive legislation secured during the last four years."

"Of thirty-three planks in the Progressive platform of 1912, twenty-two have been wholly or partly enacted into laws. Of eighty propositions embodied in these planks, more than half have been carried out by Administrative acts or by laws."

Then the statement names some examples of such legislation, and continues:

"This is a great national crisis. We are proud to stand with John M.
Parker of Louisiana for Vice President." The statement ends with the endorsement of Wilson.

Signers of Statement.
The signers are John M. Parker, ex-Gov. Lucius F. C. Garvin, of Rhode Island; ex-Governor Carey, Wyoming; Judge Albert D. Norton, Missouri; Hughes T. Halbert, Minnesota; Frank N. Howard, Vermont; M. C. Deback, New Mexico; James M. Ingersoll, Idaho; Arthur G. Wray, Nebraska; Clarence B. Strouse, Virginia; J. W. Mc-Cormack, Texas.

The five said to be endorsing it, but not signing it, were William Allen White, Kansas; George B. Hynson, Delaware; William R. Fairley, Alabama; Isaac Newton Stevens, Colorado.
Stevens released a separate statement praising Wilson's record.

Uncle Joe' Praises Women's Campaign

Veteran Politician Says Feminine Workers Are Effective Even If They Don't Swear.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 31.—After a whirlwind campaign in Illinois, the Hughes women's special is expected here late today, and will leave for Baltimore early tomorrow.

The women's talking of the reception they were given at Danville, Ill., the home of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, yesterday. "Uncle Joe" heard the women speak, and praised them highly afterward.

"You women talk so quietly," the grizzled political warrior said. "You don't swear, and you don't shake your fist. You don't orate, but you make the point you are after. You don't campaign like men, that's sure, but you campaign just as effectively."

for Buffalo, where he speaks tomorrow. Plans brief stops en route. Will speak in New York city Thursday.

ing day at Columbus, Bedford morrow for Toledo and Cleveland speeches Thursday. Re-

LARGE NOW INVOLVED IN WILSON'S CABINET

Tumulty Also Drawn Into Controversy Over Lusitania Note's Alleged Postscript.

FLATLY DENIED BY WILSON

Bryan and Garrison Among High Officials Named in Statement by Jerseyite.

Four Cabinet officers, two of whom have since resigned, and the Secretary to the President are dragged into the discussion of the Lodge charges of a secret postscript to the second Lusitania note by disclosure today.

Another important disclosure in the Cabinet crisis of the time is contained in the statement issued by President Wilson at Shadow Lawn.

President Wilson in a signed statement admits by inference that Bryan tried to get his peace treaty plan added to the second Lusitania note and failed.
Not only did he reject this, the President said, but he inserted pages "which strengthened and emphasized the protest."

President's Statement.
The President's statement follows:
"In reply to your telegram, let me say that the statement made by Senator Lodge is untrue. No postscript or amendment of the Lusitania note was written or contemplated by me. I reject such pages that I myself inserted, which strengthened and emphasized the protest."

"It was suggested after the note was ready for transmission that an intimation be conveyed to the German government that a proposal for arbitration would be acceptable, and one member of the Cabinet spoke to me about it, but it was never discussed in Cabinet meetings and no statement of this kind was ever made, for the very good reason that I rejected the suggestion after giving it such consideration as I thought every proposal deserved which touched so grave a matter."

"It was inconsistent with the purpose of the 'postscript,' which I had in mind, to suggest anything of the kind of everything that was said to the German government."

It is inferred from the President's statement that Bryan resigned because his arbitration plan was rejected and because the President changed the note from the form in which it had been approved by Bryan as Secretary of State.

Three Others Involved.
Three other Cabinet officers of the time and Secretary Tumulty are brought into the discussion by George C. Warren, of Jersey City, who cites former Secretary of War Garrison as authority for the statement that Secretary Tumulty, with the aid of Cabinet officers, induced the President to abandon the "postscript," which it was said had taken the form of a supplemental note.

Mr. Garrison, who said he got the story from Garrison himself, said Tumulty learned that President Wilson and Bryan had agreed to send a second note designed to inform Germany that the United States Government didn't really mean what it said in the first note, but was only interfering with the German government to "strict account."

When Tumulty learned of this second note, which Warren said had been described as a postscript, he went to Secretary Garrison, and urged him to induce the President to withdraw the note, as it would be "the political death of Mr. Wilson."

Mr. Garrison was said to have urged Secretary Tumulty to interest Postmaster General Burleson or other members of the Cabinet who had great influence with the President.
Warren then says that Tumulty induced Burleson, Mr. Lansing, then Counselor of the State Department, and other influential men, to intercede; whereupon the President directed the Secretary to withdraw the note.

N. E. Young, Former Balt Mogul Dead

President of National League for 18 Years Succumbs to Long Illness.

Nicholas E. Young, for eighteen years president of the National League, died at the home of his son, Robert H.
Young, early today after an illness of several years.

Interment will be at Rock Creek Cemetery Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Young was in his seventy-seventh year. He is survived by three sons—Robert H., married; Charles S., married; and Nicholas E., married; and a daughter, Mrs. Young, of Baltimore, and Ford E.
Young, head of the Young Ice Cream Company, and a daughter, Mrs. Lee Crandall, here.

Nicholas E. Young was for years a commanding figure in organized baseball. He was a connection with it only when advancing years rendered it a burden to him.

He was the original secretary of the National Association of Professional Baseball Players, from 1871 to 1875.

When the National League was formed in 1876 he became its secretary, serving in that capacity for twenty-seven years.

In 1885 he was elected to the presidency of the National League, combining that position with the duties of secretary.

He remained at the head of the league until his entire connection with the national game covered thirty-two years.

At the fortieth anniversary of the National League in London, held at winter at the Waldorf, in New York, his son, Robert H. Young, presented to the organization the original records of the first meeting ever held. The records were kept by his father and treasured through all the years of his life.

Envoy Repudiates Cabrera Interview

Arradondo Denies Authenticity of Statement Given Out By Mexican News Bureau.

Mexican Ambassador Arradondo today formally denied to Secretary of State Lansing the authenticity of an interview attributed to Mexican Commissioner Cabrera given out by the Mexican News Bureau here last Saturday.

Secretary Lansing accepted the explanation of the incident, and said he considered it closed.

Upon instructions from General Carranza, Arradondo also told Lansing that the interviews with Carranza, General Obregon, and Foreign Minister Aguirre, appearing in the press last week, were not given by the officials quoted. The only interview which the Outlook representative obtained, Arradondo told Lansing, was one with General Gonzalez, and that he said, the Outlook printed incorrectly.

Arradondo is quoted as saying he would prefer Hughes for President over Wilson. What he did say, according to Arradondo, was that whoever was elected, the Mexicans ever held, the Mexicans hoped for more cordial relations with the United States. Arradondo said Gonzalez, when questioned by the interviewers, refused to state his Presidential preference.

Secretary Lansing's only comment for publication on Arradondo's statement was that it was "most acceptable."

Artillery Struggle on Verdun Front Violent

PARIS, Oct. 31.—A violent artillery struggle was in progress last night on the Bouaumont and Vaux sectors on the western front, but otherwise there were no actions of importance, the war office reported today.

HUGHES ON SECOND SPEECH MAKING TRIP IN MORE COSY STATE

Makes Four Campaign Pleas in Indiana, Winding Up at Evansville.

WIFE DISTRIBUTES BUTTONS

Candidate's Special Runs Out of Emblems Thrown to Eager Crowds.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Oct. 31.—Candidate Hughes made his second swing into Indiana today. He was due for four speeches, winding up at Evansville tonight, and tomorrow contributes five addresses.

While exceedingly confident of the Hoosier State, Republican campaign managers want to concentrate their heaviest artillery there because of the desirability of electing two United States Senators.

The Hughes special ran out of buttons today. When the train left New York six days ago, 50,000 were included in its paraphernalia. But the demand for the stickers has been so great that the supply was reduced to a few hundred today.

Runs Out of Buttons.
Mrs. Hughes has distributed several thousand buttons, throwing them into the crowds that gathered at the rear end of the train. She prefers a special button just issued by the national committee with the single word "HUGHES" across the white button in blue letters, but with the "U" and the "S" in the name made thrice as large as the other letters and in red. From a distance the button looks like a "U. S." tag.

When the buttons ran out today, Mrs.
Hughes began distributing picture postcards of her husband.

Cold food without flourishes can give a notion of the tremendous welcome that eastern Ohio and Columbus gave the Republican candidate for President.

There were more than 150,000 persons in the streets near Memorial Hall, where Mr. Hughes spoke at 11 last night.

There were men cheering for him in an old-fashioned torchlight procession.

Slingsby Baby Case Adjourned to Dec. 1

House of Lords Grants Delay in Action Involving Vest Estates in England.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The House of Lords today granted Charles Eugene Slingsby, principal in the noted "Slingsby baby case," which involves vast Yorkshire estates, adjournment until December 1.

Through his guardian, Charles Henry Renard Slingsby, the boy had asked for adjournment for six months because of lack of funds.

The appeal now pending before the House of Lords was taken after the court of appeals had unanimously voted to reverse the first court's decision that the boy was the natural son of Charles Slingsby by his wife, who married him in 1904.

A Mrs. Warren, a Kentuckian by birth, it has been the contention of the other side that the child posed as the rich Yorkshire estates were adopted by Mrs. Slingsby through the medium of advertisements in a San Francisco newspaper, where she was living when she said the child was born.

The advertisement was produced in court by Mrs. Slingsby, convincing the first tribunal in which the case came up that she knew nothing about it.

Baltimore Lifts Plague Quarantine

All Classes in Public Schools to Resume, But Parents Must Use Precaution.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 31.—Health Commissioner John D. Blake yesterday issued an order that will remove the infantile paralysis quarantine in Baltimore at 6 o'clock this evening. Dr.
Blake, in discussing the situation, made it plain that the disease had not yet receded to normal, and urged that parents still maintain the greatest care in keeping their children away from General where they might run the risk of infection.

The order will affect about 30,000 children, less than thirteen years old, who have been kept out of the public schools since the opening on September 25. It also will affect approximately 200 teachers, who have been prevented from taking up their work so far by having no pupils.

Roosevelt's Speech in Baltimore Canceled

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Colonel Roosevelt's speaking date in Baltimore for Saturday was called off today and disclosed the plans of the Republican headquarters that it was thought the Colonel could not make good in the New England State.

SHORTAGE IN COAL IS BECOMING ACUTE OVER WHOLE NATION

Many Industrial Centers Report Inability to Obtain Normal Fuel Supplies.

GREAT CAR SHORTAGE, TOO

Increased Demand Comes as Result of Country-Wide Manufacturing Activity.

The fuel shortage situation today began to assume the proportions of a real menace. Reports began reaching Washington from many industrial centers of inability to obtain normal coal supplies.

With the greatest industrial activity the country has ever known, keeping factories and blast furnaces on twenty-four hour service, and the railroads facing the greatest traffic in their history, an unheard of demand for coal has arisen, according to authorities here.

Coupled with the immense demand for coal, the railroads, with all available facilities working at maximum, are facing, according to reports by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the worst car shortage they have ever experienced.

In efforts to move shipments of all classes, awaiting cars in every industrial and agriculture shipping point in the country, the roads have converted to general use, large numbers of apparently resigned cars, including thousands of cars normally used only for coal.

The unprecedented activity on the railroads has meant the greatest coal business ever experienced, railroad men declare. Not only has all rolling stock been shoved into commission, but the consumption per locomotive, and heavily loaded freight trains, has been increased.

The domestic consumption, coal men declare, will be greater than ever before, if the coal can be obtained.

As an aggravation of the situation, the coal mines have a tendency to decline. Not only has all rolling stock been shoved into commission, but the
increased.

Practically no coal, it was asserted, is shipped at mines, to await transportation. Lack of cars to get their coal away from the mines, will, it is believed, result in a general let-up in production until transportation conditions return to a normal.

Another factor that may figure, according to men in touch with the railroad situation, is the preference on the part of carriers, where it is possible for obvious discrimination, for long-haul shipments, and more remunerative. With grain and industrial products going through by the thousands of tons to the seaboard on long-haul shipments, it is feared, being mostly for shorter distances, may be slighted.

Revolutionists in Greece Attacked

Several Wounded When Royal-ist Troops Clash With Forces of Venizelos.

SALONIKI, Oct. 31.—In the first clash between Greek royalist troops and revolutionary forces attached to the Venizelist government, several soldiers were wounded.

A battalion of revolutionary troops were proceeding to Saloniki when they were attacked by royalist forces at Guida.

BAVARIANS REPULSE FRENCH ON SOMME

Winter Sets In On Transylvanian Front.

BERLIN (via wireless to Sayville, L. I.), Oct. 31.—The Bavarian army on the Somme front effectively stopped several light French attacks, the war office reported today. At no point were the actions favorable to the enemy.

Enemy detachments who advanced against German positions northeast and east of Les Boeufs were driven back by German fire. At La Maisonnette a French company's attack likewise failed.

At this point the French were inef-fectually made to enter new German trenches following bombing south of Blanchy.

Strong French attacks against Abain-court and on both sides of the Chauve-sneux ridge carried on important being broken up in the face of withering, defensive fire.

The Verdun front during the past twenty-four hours exhibited unusual quiet. Only in the St. Mihiel district was there any real action on the Meuse front. There artillery fire has recently increased to great violence.

Winter weather has set in on the Transylvanian front, today's statement from the Russian front.

"On the southern frontier mountains engagements continue in spite of a heavy snow storm," the report stated.

The Roumanians vainly endeavored to retake heights captured by the Germans north of Campolung and north of Orsova, the statement declared.

On Prince Leopold's front, the Russians attacked German positions near Krasnaya, but were repulsed with heavy losses.

On the upper Styria successes were reported in minor engagements.

Further south, the statement continues, German troops took an important height position and repulsed Russian counter-attacks. Four officers, seventy men, and nine machine guns were captured.

ITALIAN GUNS ROUT BULGARS AT DOIRAN

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Italian artillery dispersed Bulgarian troops northeast of Doiran, the war office announced today in reporting operations on the Balkan front. West of Prespa Lake, French troops occupied the Singier monastery.

On the Cerna fronts the Serbians were declared to be making further progress.

BERLIN (via wireless to Sayville, L.
I.), Oct. 31.—General von Falkenhayn's forces have captured 151 Roumanian officers and 9,520 men since October 10, the war office announced today.

Booby included thirty-seven cannon, forty-seven machine guns, one flag and much other war material.
